About me

Who I am and what I do

Based in the beautiful small town of Osterholz-Scharmbeck situated in between the cities of Bremen and Bremerhaven, I have been a full-time freelance translator and transcreator since 2013.

I have successfully helped clients from the English-speaking countries communicate in accurate and effective German since 1995.

Just like many competent entrepreneurs, I have a can-do attitude and this means I am able to tackle challenges. My simple goal is to make a valuable contribution to your success by providing you with German wow factor texts.

I work with...

- » international companies,
- » companies in the travel and tourism industry,
- » hotels of different kinds and sizes,
- » publishers of travel guides,
- » advertising agencies,
- » PR and communications agencies,
- » translation agencies.

Do you work in an international company or in one of the above mentioned industries and have a translation or transcreation project in mind? Please get in touch with me to discuss the details of your project.

(Medical Technology Industry)
Translated or transcreated the following text types: marketing and product brochures, product information, press releases
Translated the following text types in close cooperation with the technical manager: data sheets, help files, user and reference manuals
- » Multilingual Secretary (Gas Pipeline Construction Industry | Woodworking Machinery Industry)
- » Personal Assistant (IT Service Industry)

What else might be of interest to you?

My second area of expertise – Travel · Tourism · Hospitality – was born out of my passion for traveling, foreign countries and cultures, flora and fauna, picturesque landscapes, and exciting cities.

Apart from translating and transcreating, I enjoy attending professional development events (translation-, marketing-, travel-, tourism-, and hospitality-related), reading (in English and German: quality newspapers, travel guides, marketing and advertising magazines, books about foreign countries and cultures), cooking, photographing, hiking and biking in the close-by nature, and traveling.

Services

› Editing and Proofreading (German texts in the above mentioned areas of expertise)

Would you like to ensure that your existing German texts are flawless and help you reach your target audience effectively?

If so, let me check your texts for clarity, readability, appropriate style, tone and register, correct grammar, spelling and punctuation, as well as for typing errors.

Quality assurance

Well-written and error-free texts

I always ensure flawless German texts by...

- » carefully researching terminology-, subject area-, product- or service-related questions.
- » carefully checking the translations or transcreations for...
 - › conformance with the English source texts, completeness, consistent and correct terminology;
 - › technical accuracy, clarity, readability;
 - › appropriate style, tone and register;
 - › correct cross-cultural adaptation and brand consistency;
 - › correct grammar, spelling and punctuation;
 - › typing errors.

If requested, my translations or transcreations will be additionally edited and proofread by a second translator.

Your benefit: This so-called cross-check principle ensures maximum quality.

To be able to guarantee you high-end texts,...

- » I attach great importance to having sufficient time for the completion of your translation or transcreation projects.

Your benefit: You will save additional time and costs for reworking the texts.
